

Wendy Yeo

Artist Profile

Born in Hong Kong, Wendy Yeo studied Chinese painting techniques there, later furthering her art studies at the Slade School of Fine Art, University of London. She graduated with many prizes and completed an additional post graduate year. She won an Arts Council and a Travelling Scholarship to Italy and Paris where she attended Atelier 17.

Wendy has exhibited widely in the U.K. and abroad in many mixed and solo exhibitions. Her work is also to be found in various public and private collections.

Wendy Yeo is chiefly known as a semi abstract painter whose work is inspired by landscapes, townscapes and organic forms in nature. She combines the individuality of Western art values with her own interpretation of traditional Chinese brushwork and atmosphere.

In 2007 Wendy was elected a Member of the Watercolour Society of Wales.
